

BARGAIN SALES

COPYRIGHTED 1907

LENGTH, 510 FEET

PRICE, $50.10

A big Department Store advertises "Bargain Sales." Before the doors are open an enormous crowd of women has congregated. It is wonderful to see how they fight at the different counters. We see them at the waist counter and at the corset counter. China, hats and groceries, pictures and furniture they buy, all on account of the big bargains. How surprised Hubby will be when he sees all the bargains. Hubby, however, throws the bargains out of the window together with the bargain hunter, but imagine his surprise when the bargain hunter and all the bargains come back through the window.

COPYRIGHT 1907

THE Pay Train

Robbery

MANUFACTURED EXCLUSIVELY BY

S. LUBIN

MANUFACTURER OF

LIFE MOTION PICTURE MACHINES,

FILMS, SLIDES AND STEREOPTICONS,

19-21 South Eighth Street,

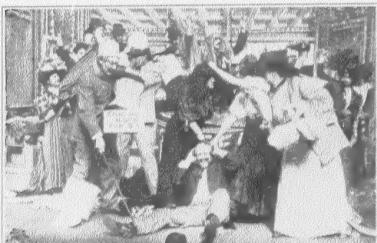

PHILADELPHIA, PA., U. S. A.

3000 X 1 - 07

BARGAIN SALES

COPYRIGHTED 1907

LENGTH, 510 FEET

PRICE, $56.10

A big Department Store advertises "Bargain Sales." Before the doors are open an enormous crowd of women has congregated. It is wonderful to see how they fight at the different counters. We see them at the waist counter and at the corset counter. China, hats and groceries, pictures and furniture they buy, all on account of the big bargains. How surprised Hubby will be when he sees all the bargains. Hubby, however, throws the bargains out of the window together with the bargain hunter, but imagine his surprise when the bargain hunter and all the bargains come back through the window.

COPYRIGHT 1907

THE Pay Train

Robbery

MANUFACTURED EXCLUSIVELY BY

S. LUBIN

MANUFACTURER OF

LIFE MOTION  PICTURE MACHINES,
FILMS, SLIDES  AND STEREOPTICONS,

19-21 South Eighth Street,

PHILADELPHIA, PA., U. S. A.

3000-X1-07

The Pay-Train Robbery.

LENGTH, 855 FEET.

PRICE, $94.05.

Scene 1—Father and Son leaving for Business.

The father and his son go to the office.

Scene 2—Betraying his Father's Confidence.

While the father is busy, the son steals to gamble.

Scene 3—Lost Again.

With the last gotten money, he goes to the track. He bets and loses again.

Scene 4—Planning the Robbery.

For exposure and not knowing how to replace the stolen money, he decides to hold up the Pay-Train.

Scene 5—Delivering the Money to the Pay-Master.

With the money is delivered to the Pay-Master, the son follows him with company, for he has been entrusted his scheme.

Scene 6—Disguised as Workmen.

The four Gentlemen disguised themselves as workmen. They walk the tracks until they come to the station they have selected for the Pay-Train robbery.

Scene 7—Preparing the Train Robbery.

The workmen, and the miffs, lay a wooden plank across the rails, and thus tipping the train to wreckage.

Scene 8—Wiring the Disaster.

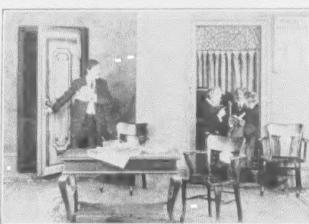

The Train-Master is seen riding the disaster to the station.

Scene 9—Rover flags the Superintendent's train.

The telegraph line being cut, the Superintendent has to flag to flag the train.

Scene 10—Captured.

Luckily nobody has been hurt. The robbers are captured, and are tried before the president of the road. The old man is much grieved, but grieves when he finds that one of the robbers to be his son.

COPYRIGHT 1907

THE MAKING

Modern Newspaper

S. LUBIN

MANUFACTURER OF

LIFE MOTION PICTURE MACHINES,
FILMS, SLIDES AND STEREOPTICONs.

19-21 South Eighth Street,
PHILADELPHIA, PA., U. S. A.